

Overview of Balletomane

- The aim of Balletomane is to offer excellence in dance education by providing students with a solid foundation in various forms of dance under the direction of highly qualified teachers.

- Our Fully Accredited Artistic Faculty ensures that each student is offered the highest level of instruction whether it is to facilitate their pursuit of a professional career in the performing arts or to foster their appreciation for dance.
- Balletomane offers programmes in recreational and vocational dance.

History of Balletomane

- Originally founded by Virginia Fleming as the Fleming School of Dance in 1973.
- Today, Balletomane continues to provide premier dance training in Oakville following the professional syllabi of both the RAD and ISTD.
- Artistic Director & President:
Ms. Elizabeth Ferenc
MA, BA(Hons), LRAD, ARAD
- Ms. Ferenc is a staunch upholder of the highest standards of dance education and training.
- Ms. Ferenc has deep knowledge and extensive experience across a wide range of dance styles and reflects this in her teaching.

Vocational Programs

- Balletomane offers two Vocational Programs for eligible students: Vocational Jazz & Modern and Vocational Ballet.
- These programs are carefully designed for talented, dedicated and serious dance students. We aim to prepare students for a potential professional career in dance performance, teaching, choreography or related professions.

- Recent graduates of Balletomane's Vocational Programs have gone on to dance with many prestigious training institutions and companies, including but not limited to: Joffrey Ballet School, National Ballet School of Canada, Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis School and American Ballet Theatre School.
- Balletomane dancers have won many awards from Canada's RAD Dance Challenge (Overall, 1st, 2nd and 3rd Place and Choreography) and annually compete in the RAD Solo Seal Competition and RAD Phyllis Bedell's Bursary Competition in London, England.
- Entry into these programs is based on the ability for students to accept and apply corrections, and a strong sense of discipline. At this time, entry into the Vocational Programs is by invitation/audition only. Please contact Ms. Ferenc directly for information regarding the Vocational Programs.
